

Technology Services

Web Site and Multimedia Design

Web Design and Development

From simple, value-priced Web Sites to complex, on-going projects, WebAxxess provides a range of web design and development services tailored to your business objectives.

E-Commerce and Database Integration

We specialize in data driven web sites, document generation and management, credit card processing and automation of business operations via distributed Internet-based custom software.

Multimedia Design

Interactive presentations, incorporating audio, video, text and computer animation, published via the Web or on CD-ROM.

Print Design and Desktop Publishing

Design and production of your printed materials, including sales sheets, color newsletters, fax advertisements and brochures.

Internet Access

Dialup Internet Access

Reliable service with Local Access Numbers throughout California. 56K, V.90 / V.92 compatible.

Wireless Broadband Internet Access

Available in Oroville, Sacramento and San Diego. High speed, varies based on location.

Technical Consulting and Support

Microsoft Application and System Administration

We support and administer Microsoft enterprise server applications and integration with existing legacy systems.

Internet Project Consulting

With years of experience in planning and deploying Internet projects, we can act as a third party consultant to develop RFP's, specifications, prototypes and more.

Technical Staff Augmentation

For your large special projects, WebAxxess can provide short- or mid-term contract technical staffing to support your in-house projects relating to web application development, network and operating system deployment, system configuration and more.

Specialty Professional Technology Consulting

Legal, Telecommunications, Sales Force Automation, Construction.

Hosting, Colocation & Managed Services

Web Site Hosting

We offer a variety of value-priced hosting packages, starting at $15.95 per month, with virtual, shared and dedicated server options for both Windows and Linux server platforms.

Server and Telecommunications Colocation

For high-traffic and specialized projects, WebAxxess provides managed colocation services to support your networked business applications and telecommunication needs. Data centers in Oroville, Sacramento and San Diego.

Hosted Business Applications & Services

Microsoft Exchange Server

Our hosted Microsoft Exchange solution provides secure Web-based access to email, files, scheduling and business group communications needs.

QuickBooks Enterprise Solutions

WebAxxess provides full support and custom managed business solutions based on the popular QuickBooks accounting software, including integration with Web Sites, automated credit card processing and more.

Microsoft Project Server

Our hosted Microsoft Project solution facilitates convenient professional-grade project management between distributed workforce and stakeholders. Web-based system allows easy access to files, schedule and project data from any location.

CoApp Responder

Our fully customizable email and fax response system allows businesses to easily distribute personalized marketing materials, quotations, product details and other business information.

CoApp IDX Manager

A professional solution for real estate agents and brokers to manage and share property listings via the Internet, with special features tailored to real estate sales and reciprocal multiple listing services.

CoApp ChamberScape

The first Internet-based custom modular management solution for chambers of commerce and member-based business organizations, including member directory services, banner advertising, billing and operations management features.